Good News Guest Story: Moving on to Brighter Days

“I’m moving out of the area, but I just wanted to thank you for all you’ve done for me, I feel like you saved my life!”

With these words, “Kenny”, came to say good-bye to the staff at the Center for Transformative Change (CTC) and let them know he had a new job, was moving out of the area, and was optimistic about a fresh start.

Kenny first came to The INN in the Fall of 2020, when he began eating meals at the Mary Brennan INN soup kitchen. One of the volunteers suspected Kenny was homeless and referred him to the CTC. While there he revealed he once had a productive career as a delivery driver, but now was without a job and indeed homeless. He shared that his life had fallen apart because of substance abuse and he lost everything. However, he had been working hard to rebuild his life and was now sober for two years.

Over the following two years, Kenny was a frequent visitor to the CTC. He was still homeless and when he could, slept on a friend’s couch. Other times he stayed at a county shelter. At times when space became available The INN provided him “respite stays” at a local hotel. Throughout this time (and this was during Covid) he persisted in looking for work as a truck driver/delivery man. A phone given him by The INN was invaluable as he fielded calls from potential employers.

The INN prides itself in being aware of and taking care of the “little” details. Such as providing a phone for Kenny, or when Kenny eventually found a job with a heating supply company, helping him with transportation to work until he received his first paycheck. And after he received that paycheck, helping him find a room to rent. Kenny proved to be a good employee. He left his home before dawn to be sure he got to work on time. He continued to visit the CTC for encouragement and guidance. He loved to tell stories. He offered to teach a staff member how to play the guitar! (Unfortunately, she had no musical ability.)

In 2023, Kenny received a call about a job he had applied for many years ago. It was a steady job with great benefits. It was in upstate New York. And even though he has moved out of the area, he promised to stay in touch with The INN.

We, like Kenny, are optimistic about his new start in life – he is resilient, hard-working and humble. We hope to see him again someday at the Center for Transformative Change, full of new stories and maybe carrying a new guitar.
